Give Glad Tidings To the Strangers*

Importance of Consistency

Rasulallah (ﷺ) said:

“Do good deeds properly, sincerely and moderately and know that your deeds will not make you enter Paradise, and that the most beloved deed to Allah is the most regular and constant even if it were little.”

The Women's Committee of Masjid As-Saffat

The Women's Committee of Masjid As-Saffat was founded in 1974 to provide opportunities for Muslim women to grow in Islam and propagate it as a way of life. The Committee works under the auspices of Masjid As-Saffat, Inc. of Baltimore and lends its support to the Masjid administration in matters concerning women. Our mission is to advocate for the education, health, stabilization, and empowerment of Muslim women and children, and to facilitate the public's awareness of Islamic beliefs.

Each year, the committee sponsors charitable and educational projects and therefore welcomes tax-deductible donations to assist in our valuable work.

Ayats and Hadeeth for Ad Journal 2024

“And verily, I am indeed forgiving to him who repents, believes and does righteous good deeds, and then remains constant in doing them.” (Surah Taha Ayat 82)

“Lord of the heavens and the earth, and all that is between them, so worship Him and be constant and patient in His worship. Do you know of any who is similar to Him?” (Surah Maram Ayat 65)

“Those who remain constant in their Salat.” (Surah Al-Ma’arij Ayat 23)

Narrated Aisha (RA): The Prophet(SAWS) was asked, “What deeds are loved most by Allah?” He said, “The most regular constant deeds even though they may be few.” He added, “Don’t take upon yourselves, except the deeds which are in your ability.” (Sahih Al-Bukhari Book 76 Hadeeth 472)

“Nay, they wonder that there has come to them a warner from among themselves. So the disbelievers say: This is a strange thing!” (Surah Qaf Ayat 2)

Narrated Mujahid: Abdullah bin Umar (RA) said, “Allah’s Apostle (SAWS) took hold of my shoulder and said, ‘Be in this world as if you were a stranger or a traveler.’” (Sahih Al-Bukhari Book 76 Hadeeth 425)

It is narrated on the authority of Abu Huraira(RA) that the Messenger of Allah (SAWS) said: “Islam began as something strange, and it would revert to being strange, so good tidings for the strangers.” (Sahih Muslim Book 1 Hadeeth 270)

Conference Sessions

OFFERED FIRST SESSION ONLY

1 Winners or Losers-

Who are the winners and who are the losers? This session will concentrate on how you can avoid being a loser, following the Prophet (saws) Aisha Muhammad- Presenter

2. KISS (Keep It Simple Sis) Geared towards new Shahadahs and non-Muslims who still need to know the basics of Islam. There is no compulsion in religion. Truth stands clear from error.

Aishah Muhammad- Guest Presenter

3. Taqwa: The Aspiration of the Believer – Righteousness is the Muslim normal. We should all aspire to be as righteous as possible, and realize that it is more than a mindset, it involves action. The halaal and haraam do not change over time, and neither should we

C. Islaah Abd' al Rahim-Guest Presenter

4. Understanding Allah's Magnificence, His Perfection and His Attributes –

The goal of this session is to share the importance of memorizing the Attributes of Allah (Al Asma Ul Husna) and understanding their meanings. We will learn through our acts of worship how to implement their usage into our lives daily, thus getting to know Allah, Subhanahu wa taa'la, better and how to get closer to him and truly love Him, especially when we are calling on Him by his beautiful names, Insha'Allah.

Jamila Garner-Presenter

OFFERED SECOND SESSION ONLY

1. Got Deen?- Discussing the correct understanding of the Deen and ways to strengthen our home life by instilling the values of Qur'an ad Sunnah in every room.

Aisha Muhammad- Guest Presenter

2. Follow the Leader Prophet Muhammad (saws); A Reminder Benefits the Believer.

When we take our Shahaadah and testify that there is no God but Allaah and that Muhammad ibn Abdullah (saws) is the last messenger and prophet of Allaah, we become Muslim with all the rights, duties and responsibilities that go along with that pledge. However, Allaah (swta) did not leave us to try and figure out what those rights, duties, and responsibilities are. HE, the All Merciful One, sent us a guide to help navigate the way back to HIM. HE created a living, breathing, thinking human being, like us, to show us through his sayings and actions, what Allaah demands from us; HE created Prophet Muhammad (saws). In shaa Allaah, this session will explore some of the halal and haram reminders that Prophet Muhammad (saws) left to help us on our journey back to Allaah (swta).

Rehana b. Yahya- Presenter

3. CDC: Choices, Decisions, Consequences – When each of us makes a decision to be Muslimah, striving to be a Mu'minah, the choices may be clear or blurred. What masjid should I attend? Who will be my teachers? What books will I read? Who will be my inspiration? Every choice leads to a decision, which leads to a consequence. This session will discuss what guidelines to use in making the correct Islamic choices.

Taahirah Matin- Presenter

4. Don't Give Up the Fight, Never Surrender-In this session, we will cite Quran and Sunnah to help us keep up the fight to maintain our deen in the face of unbelievably sanctioned adversity.

Ali Imran Ayat 104: Let their arise out of you a group of people inviting to all that is good (Islam), enjoining Al Ma'ruf (i.e. Islamic Monotheism and all that Islam orders one to do) and forbidding Al Munkar (polytheism and disbelief and all that Islam has forbidden). And it is they who are successful.

Presenter-Maisha Muhammad

JR Sessions

1. Being Social In the Social Age: Human beings by nature are social creatures, in need of companions and friends. Friendship in Islam is considered one of the Divine blessings through which we overcome loneliness & solitude. Islamic bonds with peers is important. We will learn how to create and nature those bonds in this session.

Jannah Abdul Aziz-Presenter

2. Strange Is Strong– In the Qur'an it tells us that Muslims are strange in this world. As Muslims we should accept that title and strive to be strange to the Non-Muslim world. Jahmila Al-Amin-Guest Presenter

PRESENTERS

Aishah Muhammad-Mumin became Muslim in 1972 in Philadelphia on Columbia Ave at the Masjid that was part of the Darul Islam movement. Right after the shahaadah, she started right in with learning about her new way of life and has studied Arabic, Qur'an and fiqh under various imams in person and online. They include Imam Javed Baiyat of the Laurel Masjid, and Tajweed under Muhammad ar'Raeed of the Noorani Qaida publications earning a certificate. Alhamdulillah, she is a former member the Women's Committee of Masjid as Saffat (WCMAS) and the Gwynn Oak Community and has assisted in teaching and caring for children in the Baltimore and Laurel area. She has earned a design degree from the University of Delaware enhancing her sewing and computer skills. Aishah resides in Philadelphia where she still studies Qur'an now online with Bayyinah Institute and still assists in teaching and caring for children while she makes garments for the Muslims.

Maisha Muhammad is an 11-year member of WCMAS although she has been a member of the Masjid As-Saffat community over 40 years. The mother of 7 children, 24 grandchildren, and 4 bonus grandchildren, Sister Maisha is a former elementary/middle school teacher. She has taught at the Islamic Community School of Masjid As-Saffat for 9 years and in the Baltimore City Public School System for 18 years. Maisha is a member of Sharikat An Nisaa, a business of 5 Muslim women. Ms. Muhammad has studied under Imam Taif Abdullah, Imam of Masjid As-Saffat. She has also studied tajweed and tafseer under Sister Umm Zakiyyah at Masjid Al Ihsan. Maisha has lived in Baltimore all of her life.

Taahirah Matin is a mother of 5, and grandmother of 3. She is a Baltimore native and spent 7 of her formative years in Saudi Arabia. She earned her Bachelor's of Science degree in Social Work from Morgan State University. She is currently a teacher at Islamic Community School, where she is also an alumna.

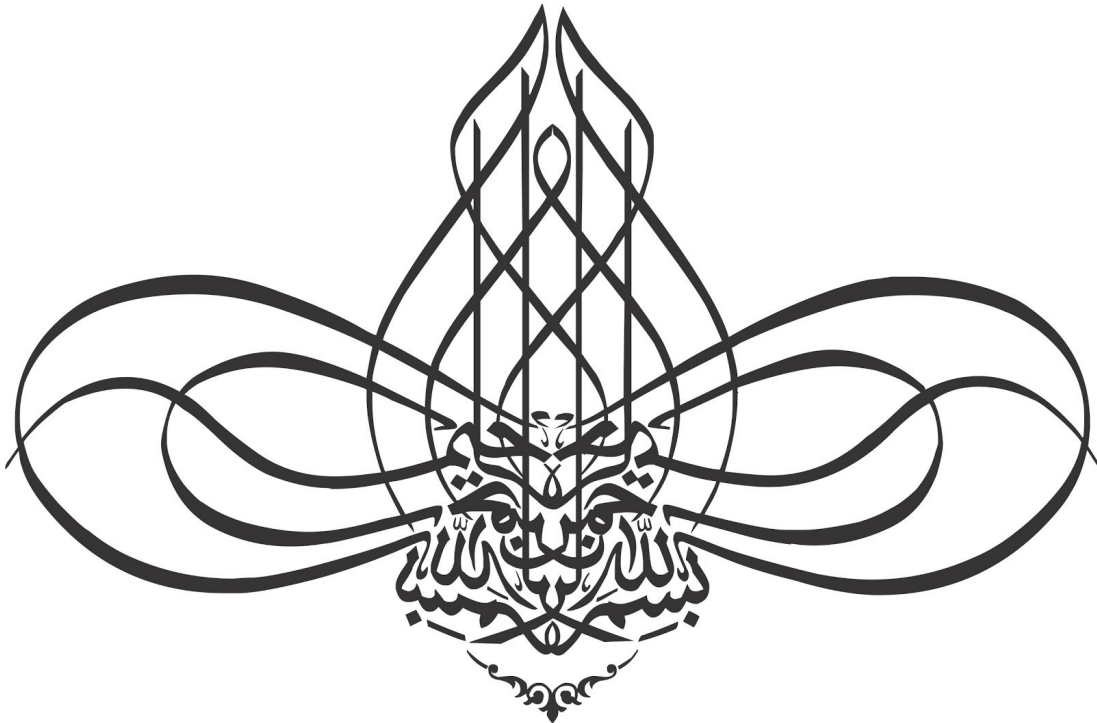

Aisha Abdullah- Alhamdulillah, is a pioneering member of Masjid As-Saffat, one of the co-founders of the original "sisterhood" of the Masjid, and has been a member of WCMAS since its inception in 1974. Having studied Aqeedah, Tafsir and Seerah under the auspices of Imam Taif Abdullah for more than 40 years, she joined the Iqamatiddeen Organization several years ago (Iqamatiddeen means the establishment of the DEEN OF ALLAH). Aisha is also a teacher and educator, holding both a BA and Masters in Education. For almost 20 years, she held the title of headmistress of an International Girls School in Jeddah, Saudi Arabia. Arabic, Quran and Islamic Studies were major components of the curriculum of the school. Presently, Aisha is an entrepreneur, and Alhamdulillah has written her first book!

Rehana b. Yahya has been with the Women's Committee of Masjid As-Saffat since its inception and studies under Imam Taif Abdullah, Imam of Masjid As-Saffat in Baltimore, Maryland. She has a master's degree in secondary education from Coppin State University. She is principal, teacher, and co-founder of Islamic Community School also located in Baltimore, MD.

Jannah Abdul Aziz started her involvement with Jr. WCMAS when she was 12 and has since moved on to join as a member of the senior WCMAS. She has been giving sessions for 6 years now and enjoys sharing her experience as a young Muslimah. Jannah graduated Islamic Community School with all honors in 2020 and returned to teach in 2021. Jannah graduated from College with Honors in 2023, Jannah is also the lead on the Jr. Conference planning committee.

Medinah (Jahmila Al-Amin) has been an active member of the Community Mosque of Winston-Salem for over 20 years. She holds a bachelor's degree from UNC-Chapel Hill in International Studies, and an associate's degree in computer programming. She runs an Islamic Youth group and is also an Islamic Sunday school teacher. She is currently training to be a police officer.

Jamila Garner- Alhamdulillah, Jamila took her Shahada in 1976 at the age of 17, just before starting her senior year of high school. She immediately became an active member of Masjid As-Saffat and has been a member of WCMAS for forty-eight years now. She has been a workshop facilitator for the annual women's conference since the beginning (1983). Jamila also dedicated her time and talent as a teacher at the Islamic Community School for twenty years (1979-1999) during which time she was affectionately nicknamed "Mama J". She is also known as "The Cookie Lady", owner of Jamila's Sweet Treats for 22 years now, Alhamdulillah. She has also been a member of Masjid Al-Ihsan since 2005 where she now serves on the Board, assigned to their Social Services Department. Jamila is a mother of 6, grandmother of 13, and became a widow in 2019 after being married to Abdulmuhsiy for 42 years (may Allah have mercy on him). Jamila was married to Ali Ahmad in 2021, Alhamdulillah.

Helpful Reminder...Kindness comes in all forms. Islam reiterates that all acts of kindness are equivalent to charity.

The Prophet (SAW) said: "Every act of kindness is charity. "

♥ We used to know but we didn't act

Ibnul Qayyim (RA) said,

"A girl died of the plague and her father saw her in his dream. He said, 'my daughter, tell me about the hereafter. So she said, 'We've approached a serious matter. We used to know but we didn't act. I swear by Allah, to add one tasbeehah (saying Subhan Allah) or a single Rak'ah to my book of deeds is more beloved to me than the whole world and everything in it.'

This girl said words of great importance. 'We used to know but we didn't act', but many of us don't understand what she means.

We used to know, that if we say Subhan Allah wa bi Hamdihi 100 times our sins are forgiven even if they're like the foam of the sea (yet days and nights pass and we don't say it)

We used to know that two rak'ahs of Duha prayer is the equivalent of giving 360 charities (yet day after day pass and we don't pray it)

We used to know that a house in the middle of Jannah is guaranteed for one who abandons lying even while joking (yet every second sentence we utter is a lie)

We used to know that fasting a day voluntarily for the sake of Allah puts a distance between our face and the fire the size of seven trenches and Allah distances our face from the fire the distance travelled in 70 years, (and we haven't fasted single day this week)

We used to know that whoever visits a sick person is followed by 70,000 angels seeking Allah's forgiveness on his behalf (but we haven't visited a sick person this week)

We used to know that whoever prayed a funeral prayer and followed it till it was buried has two Qiraats of reward and a Qiraat is like the mountain of Uhud (yet weeks pass and we haven't been to the graveyard.)

We used to know that whoever builds a mosque even if it's like a bird's nest Allah builds a house for them in paradise (yet we haven't contributed to the building of a Masjid, even with 10 dinars)

We used to know that the one who supports the widow and her children is like the fighter in the path of Allah and the one who fasts all day and prays all night without sleeping. (Yet we haven't contributed to sponsoring a widow and her children)

We used to know that whoever reads a single letter from the Quran has a good deed and every deed is multiplied by 10. Yet we haven't made a point to read it every day.

We used to know that an accepted Hajj has the reward of jannah and it sends the person who completed it off like the day his mother gave birth to him. (With a clean book of deeds) yet we haven't performed the rites of Hajj although our circumstances have made it easy for us.

We knew the honor of a believer is in Qiyam Al-layl, and that the Prophet (pbuh) and his companions never missed it all their lives despite being busy with making a living and fighting in the path of Allah and spreading the religion. But we have neglected this matter terribly.

We knew the Day of Judgment was coming without a doubt and that Allah will resurrect us from our graves but we haven't prepared for that day.

We used to bury the deceased and pray over them but haven't prepared ourselves for a day like this one, as if we have a guarantee that it won't happen to us.

We know that every breath we breathe is getting us closer to death yet we're still busy with amusement and playing. It's time we change the way we're living and prepare properly for the day of accounting.

"On the Day a man will flee from his brother. And his mother and his father
And his wife and his children, For every man, that Day, will be a matter adequate for him."

Quran (80:34-37)

Alhamdulillah, I am soo proud of you! Mommy.

Keep Allah first in all you do.

Hold firmly to the rope of Allah and do not become divided. Surah At-Imraan (103).

Your hard work, determination, and perseverance have paid off.

You can achieve whatever you want in life.

Attain all your dreams and aspirations in life and remember that the process of learning never ends.

Important ayah and suras to keep on hand:

1. Ayatul Kursi- most powerful ayah.
2. The 4 Quls- protection against evil.
3. Suratul Fatihah- A All in one sura.
4. Sura Mulk- Protects you from the torture in the grave.
5. Suratul Waqiah- Prevents poverty.
6. Sura Ad-Duha- Prevents sadness and depression.
7. Sura Baqarah- Cleansing and purifying the environment.
